

FOUR WILL GO TO MEET IN OREGON

Four delegates will represent the Torrance Seventh-Day Adventist Church at a five-day laymen's congress to be held at Gladstone, Ore., Pastor Glenn L. Goffar announced this week.

Attending the Aug. 2 to 6 congress will be Mr. and Mrs. Chey Fredericks and Elder and Mrs. Goffar. They will join some 2000 delegates and visitors from western states and Hawaii at the meeting, designed to teach leadership for the laymen.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks will leave on July 30, returning on Aug. 8, while the Goffars will spend only a day or two at the conference, as his local duties permit.

At the same time, Pastor Goffar announced that a special collection will be taken up this Saturday for support of a $12,300,000 expansion program for the Adventist medical center at Loma Linda.

The hospital, organized in 1906, has graduated more than 5000 doctors, including three local doctors, who were trained in the College of Medical Evangelists. They are Drs. John Beeman, Clifford Easley, and Don Carlos Moshos, all M.Ds.

Richard King To Lead Soul Clinic Rally

Richard King, of Lomita, will be guest speaker at 7:30 tonight at a rally for the American Soul Clinic at Torrance Civic Auditorium.

King, who heads the Soul Clinic's Torrance projects, will lead the meeting, assisted by the "Singing Folks," Carl and Leota Folk, who will present the music with students from the Clinic's Huntington Park training center.

A recent graduate of the American Soul Clinic Schools, King and his family are planning to go to Japan as missionaries soon. He attended the Clinic school in Texas and has taken further leadership training in this area. He will be accompanied to Japan by his wife, Barbara, and children, Mark and Deborah.

Carnival, Barbecue Set Saturday At Lomita Presbyterian Church

A carnival and barbecue dinner, sponsored by the Lomita Presbyterian Church Mother's Club, will be held this Saturday afternoon and evening at the church, 245th and Woodward Sts., Lomita.

The carnival is designed to raise funds for a new church, since increased membership has made the old building inadequate.

Band Will Play
A guitar band, led by William Edwards, will play from 2:30 to 4 p.m., while other carnival concessions are open.

A special attraction for youngsters between five and nine will be a "mountain of sand," in which the children will scramble for $10 worth of silver dimes buried there. This event will start at 4 p.m.

Dinner Slated
A barbecue dinner will be served from 4:30 until 7:30, including a beef dinner and dessert. Tickets can be obtained in advance or at the door. The dinner committee includes Mrs. Joe Harlan, Harlan Huff, Harry Ballie, Eldon Durham, Erling Barum, and Lewis Leonard.

In charge of booths in the fun zone will be Mrs. Charles Dickens, I. R. Buchan, Vernon Walker, Byron Flint, Harry Ballie, William Edwards, Bruce Wilson, John Bowles, Ray Albert, Wade White, Lattie Armstrong, Edward Stambaugh, Martin Jones, Jean Edmond, and Sue Phippen. Fathers also will help.

Prizes, donated by merchants, will be given.

NEW BAPTIST SCHOOL WILL OPEN THIS FALL

Some 120 pupils are expected to enroll in the new Western Ave. Baptist Church Elementary School, which will open in September, according to the Rev. Walter Graham.

Located at 252nd and Western Ave. Harbor City, the school will have kindergarten and first grade classes, and possibly second grade classes if demand is large enough, he said.

Finishing touches on the $24,000 L-shaped building, located north of the church, were being completed this week. It contains five classrooms and 700 square feet of floor space. Three of the classrooms will be used at first, according to Rev. Graham.

The new school is designed to provide elementary education with "private school advantages," he said, with full-day sessions for grades and morning and afternoon kindergarten sessions.

Registrations for the school, open to children of all faiths, are being taken at the church office, 253rd and Western Ave., Harbor City.

BUNDY WILL GIVE TALK BEFORE MYF

Continuing a series of discussions on the "four freedoms," Reid Bundy, editor of the Torrance HERALD, will discuss "freedom of the press" at a meeting of the combined junior and senior Methodist Youth Fellowships at 6:30, Sunday night.

This is part of a series of talks on the "four freedoms" at the First Methodist Church, which last week featured Richard Richards, state senator, discussing "freedom of assembly."

At the 9 a.m. worship service, J. Gene Walker, student preacher, will discuss, "Let Us Pray." A 1955 graduate of Torrance High School, he was granted a local preacher's license, and will start a seven-year course of study this fall. Gerry Roberts will be lay reader at the service.

Rev. Donald J. Shelby will speak at the 11 a.m. service on "Great Truths in a Gray Dawn," with Robert Parke as lay reader. Mrs. Richard Bunting, organist, will play selections from the "Second Sonata," by Mendelssohn.

El Retiro Park Site of Baptist Picnic Sunday

The South Bay Baptist Church will hold a Sunday school picnic Saturday at El Retiro park, with games and contests in the afternoon, and a picnic supper at 6 p.m.

According to Superintendent Gerald Stevenson, the festivities will get underway at 3 p.m., with a three-legged race and a pie-eating contest.

In 11 a.m. worship services Sunday, the Rev. George F. Cain will speak on "A One-Man Finance Committee." "When a Christian Sins" will be his topic in evening services at 7:30, with baptismal rites during the hour.

A crib nursery and toddler care are provided during all church services.

The junior high youth groups will meet at 6:30, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Laughlin, while the senior high group, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stevenson will meet in the chapel. Mrs. Edna Church is youth director.

A special meeting will be held at 6:30 Tuesday evening by the Men's Fellowship, with Del Plesius, principal of Montebello Elementary school and vice president of the Men's Fellowship of Southern California, as guest speaker. Tickets may be obtained from B. T. Lamb or George Shockey by Sunday evening.

A study of the Gospel of John will be on the agenda at 7:30 Wednesday evening Bible study and prayer meeting.

Subject of Sermon is God, Truth

The healing and redeeming power of Truth, God, will be the central theme in the Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" in all the Christian Science churches on Sunday.

A highlight of the sermon is the account of the healing of the epileptic boy, the only son of his father. After the disciples had failed to heal the case it was called to Jesus' attention. Jesus commanded, "Bring thy son hither." Then the account continues, "And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father." (Luke 9:41, 42)

"The utterance of truth is designed to rebuke and destroy error," reads a correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. And later, "Truth is affirmative, and confers harmony... By the truthful arguments you employ, and especially by the spirit of Truth and Love which you entertain, you will heal the sick" (pp. 233, 418).

The Golden Text for the sermon is from Psalms: "Thy mercy is great above the heavens; and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; and thy glory above all the earth" (Ps. 108:4, 5).

Bible School Classes Set By Lutherans

Vacation Bible school classes will be held for two weeks, starting Aug. 1, at the Ascension Lutheran Church, 18002 Prairie Ave., according to Pastor Carlton F. Kjergaard.

Classes are arranged for children from five to 12 years old, through the eighth grade from 9 to 11:30 a.m., Monday through Friday.

A short joint worship service will be held each morning for classes, followed by a separate meeting of all departments for Bible discussion. There will be handwork and singing also.

Heads of the five departments of the school will be Mrs. Emma Priebe, nursery; Mrs. Mildred Lee, beginners; Mrs. Olga Schukle, primary; Mrs. S. Schuetz, juniors, and Rev. Kjergaard, seniors.

Registration can be made every Sunday at 9:30 or at the time sessions begin. Additional information can be obtained from Rev. Kjergaard at PR 9-5934.

Neil Bowles to Give Radio Talk on Sunday

"They Shall Not Hunger Nor Thirst" is the subject of a Christian Science program to be given on Columbia's "Church of the Air" over KNX, Sunday, at 7 a.m.

Neil H. Bowles, Christian Science Committee on Publication for Georgia, will be speaker. The music will be furnished by Frederick Jagel, soloist of the Mother Church, and by Kenny Baker. The program will originate from Atlanta, Ga.

Local Group Attends Meet

George Kezar, presiding minister of the Torrance congregation, led a local delegation to the Jehovah's Witnesses Los Angeles convention held recently.

The group heard N. H. Knorr, president of the Watchtower Society, discuss "World Conquest - God's Kingdom."

Manuel Deniz and Artie Scroggins were baptized at the meeting. Assisting in the refreshment department were H. P. Hudson, Paul Maynard, and George Kezar.
